A TIME OF PLENTY.

Southern California, especially this section of it, is particularly blessed at this season of the year with an abundance of the good things which are the product of orchard and garden. A tour of our grocery stores and markets discloses a most attractive array of vegetables and fruits. Peaches have been on the market for some weeks, but the early specimens of that fruit are more attractive to the eye than to the palate. Now, however, there are Foster's, Early Crawford's and a few Elbertas coming in and the quality of that fruit is rapidly improving and will soon be at its best. Apricots are almost out of the market, a few Moorpark's lingering in evidence of the fact that that delicious fruit is still with us in small quantities. Red nectarines, one of the best of the stone fruits, are in moderate supply. Tragedy pines with a few of the Japanese varieties and the Burbank productions are abundant, and a few green gages have appeared. Crab apples are in good supply as are also other early varieties. Bartlett pears are appearing but have not yet become abundant. The Imperial valley muskmelons have been succeeded by the product of our local fields, much to the betterment of the quality. Jose Olivas has a large field of the Rocky Ford variety on Fourth street east of Adams, while some fine extra large muskmelons called the "Persian," are coming in from Ninth and Verdugo Road. Watermelons are becoming abundant and reasonable in price. A new yellow fleshed variety competes to a limited extent with the old reliable Chili melon, the quality being excellent.

There is not much of a change in the vegetable list. Green corn is improving in quality, as the late raised is more free from worms than the earlier product. Tomatoes are still scarce in the local fields but are coming on rapidly. Egg plants are still a luxury. Hubbard squashes are coming in in good supply. Altogether it is not difficult if the purse permits to make a good selection for the table from the goods presented in our local markets.

BUILDING AND REALTY.

The building inspector's report published elsewhere shows a total amounting to $18,515 during the month of July, which is not so bad for midsummer, and this does not include more than half of what constitutes greater Glendale, as building operations outside and near the corporation lines continue at a lively rate.

The two-story, $3000 residence being started by Mr. Meeker on Sixth street east of Adams, will be a valuable addition to that section of the city which is not keeping up with other portions of the city in improvements. Mr. Severance is also making a fine improvement in that section, an attractive $2000 residence to be started soon. Mrs. Chester, who has built two or three other houses in Glendale during the past two years, is putting up another on Louise street between Third and Fourth, to cost $1500.

Mr. A. C. Oliver is building a cottage on Howard street between First and Second streets, to cost about $600. C. E. Stanley and Co. have sold to Mr. C. L. Wallace, recently from Long Island, N. Y., two lots on Cedar street adjoining "The Priory," upon which a fine residence will probably be erected soon.

Mr. John W. Parker has sold his home on Louise street to Mr. L. P. LaDow of Los Angeles.

PUBLIC LIBRARY REPORT.

The following is a condensed report of the trustees of the public library: The library was moved in January to its present more central and commodious quarters on Glendale avenue between Third and Fourth, and since this change the increase in patronage has been marked. The library is now kept open three afternoons and evenings every week. The services of a trained librarian were secured and the 600 volumes are now classified and more accessible.

One of the additions to the library during the year is a fumigating box.

Two dozen magazines are regularly found on the reading table. The aim of the trustees is to maintain a high standard in selections of books, particularly in reference to the demands of the young. Contributions received during the year have been acknowledged through the GLENDALE NEWS.

The state library and woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal diocese of Los Angeles continue to place their books at the disposal of the library, adding considerably to its attractiveness and usefulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Goss of Fifth street visited Capt. and Mrs. Young of San Pedro on Tuesday and on Wednesday spent the day at Wilmington and report the towns gay with yellow bunting, the consolidation colors, and all in holiday spirit.

Howard H. Martin has returned to Glendale from a week's outing in San Diego and vicinity. While automobiling near San Diego, a sudden jolt of the machine threw Mr. Martin overboard and he is suffering from a seriously sprained arm in consequence.

Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Moyle are at Monrovia where Mrs. Moyle is reported as slowly recuperating after her long siege of illness. She has been up on Mt. Wilson trying the effect of a high altitude, but has settled down for the present at Monrovia.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. C. F. Parker, Central avenue near Second, on Friday afternoon, August 13, next, at 2 p. m. An interesting program will be provided and all the ladies of the church and their friends are urgently invited to be present.

Miss Monica Smith is greatly enjoying the festivities of Forest Home, a delightful mountain camp on the north side of the Yucalpa range above Redlands. A feature of her entertainment will be a bonfire and out-door party Wednesday night. Other trips will take in the Bridal Veil Falls, Minnehaha Falls, Oak Canyon Springs, the marble quarry and Snow canyon.

Mr. L. C. Brand left last Saturday for the Klamath Lake country, where he expects to lose himself in the wilds of that section for a fortnight or more and hopes to make the intimate acquaintance of grizzlies and other more or less harmless denizens of that comparatively unfrequented section. He is accompanied by his nephew, Mr. W. P. Thompson and by Messrs. Holliday and Moreland. Mrs. Brand remains at Miradero.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Monroe and daughter, Blythe, of Louise street, leave Friday night, August 6th, for the Seattle exposition. They will go via Salt Lake City, stopping off a few days at that point; also at Walla Walla and North Yakima, Wash. After a week at the fair they will return via Tacoma, Portland and San Francisco, stopping over at different places. They will return about September first. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Grover of Hollywood will occupy their residence while away.

If you want a flour made near home you will find no better flour than the Pasadena Milling Co.'s "Best." It is made of the choicest California and eastern wheats scientifically blended. For sale by the leading grocers of Glendale.

LORD'S PRAYER AS INTERPRETED

BY G. W. BEMIS, D.D., D.C.

The Savior gave us the best words to use while repeating the Lord's Prayer. "After this manner, therefore pray ye;" Whosoever adds or takes from these words comes under the condemnation spoken of in Rev. 22:18-19. "Thy will be done in earth"—of our hearts which live in earthly bodies—Rev. 17:17; also see II Corinthians 5:1-5. "In earth" the conscience is the spiritual life created in God's image, Heb. 9:14. We live in earth or earthly houses. See II Cor. 5:1-5. The spirit loves God and does His will while in these earthly houses. People who try to instruct God better get on their knees and pray awhile. "Who art thou trespasser on earth" cannot be found in the Lord's Prayer. To obey is better than burnt offering or sacrifices. God will hear our prayers if we have saving faith, which is not separated from good works. If we don't forgive others, God will not hear our prayers.—Mark 11:26. "Ask and ye shall receive." Matthew 7:7. This has no force without being taken in connection with I John 5:14, namely, "If we ask according to His will," God hears not sinners.—John 9:13.

The Pharisee omitted the truth: But kept his hands clean. Not like the poor Publican. So rough, humble and green.

The Publican with aching heart Smote himself on his breast But went down to his home With his soul greatly blessed.

"The prayer of the wicked is sin."—Ps. 109:7. The reward of the prayer of the Pharisee is included in the praises of the simple. We must not think because we can make eloquent prayers and are good musicians and singers that God will hear us. "A fool's prayer is known by its many words." God knows the conscience. He knows what we need before asking. Not every one that sayeth "Lord, Lord" but he that doeth.—Rev. 22:14. Many make merchandise of God's word and are blind leaders of the blind. See Matt. 7:21, 22, 23.

After this manner pray ye:

Our Father which art in heaven, Thy name be glorified and thine kingdom come. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory forever, amen. May we wisely shun Satan's pen. A word to the wise is enough.

WATER MELON PARTY.

Monday evening a party of young people enjoyed the delightful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pirtle and their daughter, Laura, at a watermelon party and candy pull at their charming summer camp, at the old Verdugo Home. The carriage ride in the early evening up through romantic and charming Verdugo Canyon and the return some hours later when the rays of the moon bathed everything in its mellow light was a delightful feature of the evening's program. Approaching the ranch house the guests caught glimpses of welcoming lights and heard the sound of hospitable voices.

After a hearty welcome some gave themselves to the culture of cards while others enjoyed the charm of the evening from hammocks beneath the ever festive Japanese lanterns. Then followed an old-fashioned candy pull in which some pulled and some pulled and stuck, and all were cheerful. After such exertions refreshment seemed a necessity and a generous supply of melons satisfied that oft-recurring and insistent demand.

"HARD TIMES" PARTY.

A mirth provoking "Hard Times" party was given Saturday evening by Miss Clarice Dornay at her home on Grand boulevard. The young people donned grotesquely poverty-stricken apparel in the attempt to win the prizes awarded for the worst dressed. The prize for young ladies was taken by Miss Clarissa Haynes, while that for young men went to Mr. Frank Little, who was attired in a bootblack costume which would have barred him forever from the company even of that not-exacting society. Punch was served in the summer house, and on the lawn plentiful refreshments added to the enjoyment of the young people. Such an occasion of course could not pass without song, and after much enthusiastic rendering of popular airs the party wound up a very enjoyable evening.

You will find it profitable to consult Tupper & Co. on all matters relating to fire insurance. H. C. Tupper has been in the insurance business for over fifteen years and can tell you whether or not your insurance is good and the price you ought to pay. Try them. Corner Fourth and Glendale avenue.

The conditions are perfect for the manufacture of flour in Pasadena. The Pasadena Milling Co.'s "Best" flour is guaranteed better for family use than any eastern flour. Why not try a sack and be convinced?

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. Ward of Occidental college will preach at 11 a. m. in this church. Evening service in the Methodist church at 7:45. All are most cordially invited to these services.

Glendale, Cal., Aug. 5, 1909.

The Sunday School teachers' training class met Thursday at 10 a. m. in the First Baptist church. Miss Campbell taught the lesson for the coming Sunday. Mrs. Alexander Teschan will teach the next lesson, "Paul on 'Christian Love,'" I Cor. 13:1-13.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH.

The usual service at 11 o'clock to which all persons are welcome. The Rev. Mr. Runkle will preach. The Sunday School meets at 10 o'clock sharp at the parish hall, corner Third and Jackson street. New scholars are welcome at any time and old scholars are expected to attend regularly. The subject of the sermon on Sunday will be "The Sin of Evil Done; of Good Undone." "Which Is Your Sin?"

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SEWING BEE.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Christian church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Utter for the last meeting of the summer. He tried to make it one of the pleasantest meetings of the year and those living too far away were "sent for," the ladies enjoying the drive as a prelude to the busy hour of sewing and work. Ices and cake and a generous treat of plums came as a delightful intermission and the business of the year was concluded.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The pastor will preach both morning and evening next Sunday. It is gratifying to note that the Junior society is growing both in interest and members under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Teschan. The children's choir is a new departure of this work and was enjoyed by all last Sunday evening, when they furnished singing for the Senior society meeting.

The two special sermons given by the Rev. H. E. Marshall last Sunday were appreciated very much by all who heard them. The plain old-fashioned gospel in a simple manner was presented ably. The trustees of the church wish it understood that the destruction and defacing of the church property is being looked into. The guilty parties caught will find it no small matter on their hands, for they will be forthwith arrested and prosecuted.

ADVENTIST CAMP MEETING.

One of the largest camp meetings probably that has ever been held in this section began Thursday evening last and will continue for ten days, closing on the 15th at the junction of Santa Monica and Western avenues, Los Angeles. There are about 360 tents on the ten-acre field set aside for the camp, not including the large boarding tents, etc. There will probably be a daily attendance of 3000 people while services continue. The program is a varied one, for while the meetings are especially in the interest of the Adventists, there are to be speakers from other denominations on several occasions and one day is set apart as a Temperance Day, when addresses will be made by Will D. Gould, Esq., Wm. Murphy and others.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL.

In a tent on the adjoining vacant lot last Friday evening the Christian church held an ice cream social, the proceeds of which went toward the "Piano fund."

The piano had been brought from the church, and under the light of the Japanese lanterns a pleasing program was enjoyed. Mrs. Musser gave a piano solo; Mr. Dayhof sang several selections and the Misses Utter played a piano duet. Candy and cake was sold and plenty of ice cream was in evidence, making the evening profitable as well as enjoyable.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Marjorie Temple of Orange street celebrated her second birthday last Monday with a party of little friends accompanied by their mothers, about sixteen being present. In the living room which was prettily decorated with red geraniums, the little tots played simple games, while their mothers engaged in conversation, after which in the dining room refreshment in pink hydrangeas, refreshments were served and the birthday cake with its two pink candles, was of course the most interesting to the wee guests.

OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC.

The annual picnic of the Old Settlers' association will be held (probably at Echo Park), on August 21st (Saturday), in accordance with the action taken last year fixing that date. A few special invitations will be sent to old settlers and others who might not otherwise hear of the affair, but a general invitation is given to all citizens of the valley and their visitors to attend. Everybody who behaves himself will be welcomed regardless of age or sex. Old settlers, however, must come. Keep the date open. J. C. SHERER, Pres.

Items of Interest

At a meeting of the Poultry Breeders' association of Southern California, held at Los Angeles July 29th, Mr. C. M. Walton of Glendale was unanimously elected president for the ensuing year.

Glendale Market—Fine beef, lamb, veal and pork. Try us and be convinced.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney B. Dixon, of Detroit, Mich., are visiting their son, Mr. Sydney B. Dixon and family, at their home on the corner of Sixth street and Verdugo Road. They will probably remain until September.

Mr. R. W. Larritt, wife and child, and Mrs. Mary Coote, sailed from San Francisco yesterday on the Mariposa for Australia to be absent about three months visiting their old home, Mr. Larritt and Mrs. Coote being brother and sister. Mr. Larritt is now manager of the Westminster hotel, Los Angeles, and will be remembered by some of the old-timers as having spent some months with his sister at Somerset Farm and in Eagle Rock valley ten or twelve years ago.

If you want the best of meats for the least money, go to Glendale Market.

We are in receipt of a letter from the secretary of the Prison Reform League, Miss Philaetha S. Michelsen, of 512-514 Byrne building, Los Angeles, with some of the literature of the organization. This association exists for a most worthy object and any of our people who are in practical sympathy with it, can help the cause by enrolling themselves as members and otherwise. Address Miss Michelsen as above.

UNUSUAL WATER SUPPLY.

As showing the ample water supply which Glendale has to draw from, the following item is of interest. The Verdugo Pipe and Reservoir Co. which is the distributing company on the east side of Glendale, has notified its patrons that their irrigating time will be increased from four minutes to four and a half per minute per share per week, the surplus of water rendering this possible. It is the first time this has ever been done; usually a decrease in irrigating time is made during midsummer. This company has a pumping plant in conjunction with Verdugo Canyon gravity water, but the canyon water is supplying all usual demands.

PIANO RECITAL.

Thursday evening at the Christian church Mrs. Princess Long, a popular and well-known missionary of Long Beach, accompanied by Mrs. Mitchell, also of Long Beach, gave an excellent and interesting concert.

A mixed program of love songs and sacred music was greatly enjoyed by an appreciative audience as were also two readings, "The Man Without a Country" and a little negro dialect. Mrs. Mitchell's accompanying so pleased those present that she gracefully granted their request for a solo which was skilfully played and heartily received.

LADIES AID OF THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

Under fine old pepper trees the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held an all-day meeting. Mrs. S. Grant, of Sixth street and Verdugo Road, being hostess of the day. The usual business meeting was conducted followed by hours of busy sewing and planning, all in the interest of the bazaar, which is so steadily drawing near. A picnic lunch was served on the shady lawn. About twenty-four were present.

GLENDAL, CAL., AUGUST 7, 1909

Poor old Spain has now to wrestle with a more serious problem than the regulation of bull fights. With the war in Morocco and the revolution at home, she has trouble enough and in abundance to loan.

The Georgia legislature has enacted a law making it a penal offense to utter a false or defamatory word against a woman. The men are still unprotected.

Ida Lewis, the "Grace Darling" of America and the keeper of Lime Light on the New England coast, has, at the age of 68 years, added five more lives to the long list of those she has saved. Now Oslar where are you?

John D. Rockefeller's total gift to the general education board, headquarters in New York City, amount to $52,000,000. He has recently removed certain restrictions which hampered the board of control so that his benefactions may have a wider application than at first designed.

Mr. Webster Davis, who resigned his position with the U. S. government as assistant secretary of state to attempt the task of shaping sentiment in the United States so as to assist the cause of the Boers in their war against the British in South Africa, has taken the platform again and is still talking on that subject. Mr. Davis has the reputation of being a very eloquent speaker, the equal of the late Robert G. Ingersoll or the later Wm. J. Bryan, as some think, but from the reports of his recent speeches which have attracted our attention, we fear he is rather weak on facts. No one questions the bravery of the Boers in the unfortunate war which they were recklessly led into by Krueger and others, but it is doubtful if they showed more of that quality than did the English. Indeed, the Boers fighting behind breastworks and in ambush against their opponents who charged upon their positions over unprotected fields or up the rugged mountain heights against an unseen foe, have but little chance to win our plaudits, for it was the dogged courage of the British soldier that was mostly in evidence before the world. When Mr. Davis, therefore, alludes to the Boers as "Charging the rugged hills of Spion Kop willing to die if need be to save their beloved country," and compares them to Leonidas and all the rest of the Spartans, he is depending too much upon the ignorance of his auditors, for it was the British who climbed Spion Kop.

KIPLING.

Kipling still writes poetry, as is proved by a recent contribution to the Morning Post. But it is not the poetry of pastime nor of uplift, on the contrary, it is thoroughly pessimistic and the critics are likening him to Jeremiah of old, the prophet of gloom. It is to be hoped that he is not so surely a prophet as was Jeremiah, for it will be remembered that the latter spoke to a people who had committed grievous sins and deserved all that the prophet said against them. And they doubtless laughed him to scorn as do some of the critics of the prophet-poet of England. Here is what he says of the people, at their pastime of law making:

They said: Who has hate in the soul?
Who has envied his neighbor?
Let him arise and control both that man and his labor.
They said: Who is eaten by sloth?
Whose unthrifty has destroyed him?
He shall levy a tribute from all because none have employed him.
They said: Who has tolled? Who hath striven, and gathered possession?
Let him be spoiled. He has given full proof of transgression.
They ran panting in haste to lay waste and embower forever
The wellsprings of Wisdom and Strength, which are Faith and Endeavor.
They neared out and digged up and craved forth and expected to derision
All doctrine of purpose and worth and restraint and prevision.
And it ceased, and God granted them all things for which they had striven,
And the heart of a beast in the place of a man's heart was given.

A LOST OPPORTUNITY.

If the Democratic party had through its representatives in congress at the extra session now drawing to an end, proved itself sincere in its declaration of principles in regard to the tariff by standing out in solid phalanx against the "stand pat" wing of the Republican party, it would have had a chance at least to get out of the political wilderness in which it has been wandering ever since Wm. J. Bryan foisted his sixteen-to-one foolishness upon it. All through the debates over the tariff bill, Mr. Aldrich, who represents so ably the "protected" interests, has been assisted and encouraged by prominent leaders among the opposite party. These Democrats came from states which have special interests of their own and they nearly always voted for the "protection" of those interests.

The interests of the country at large did not appeal to them; the interests of their party were disregarded, but the interests of their immediate constituents were considered paramount. There are a great many members of the Republican party who while believing as strongly as ever in the theory of a protective tariff, believe at the same time that many industries which possibly at one time were in serious need of protection, do not require it any longer and that a continuance of the present schedule of duties upon the articles represented by those interests, means a tax upon the many consumers for the benefit of a few producers. Politically, therefore, it was manifestly the part of wisdom for the Democratic party simply by adhering consistently to its declared principles, to cater to this spirit of dissatisfaction in the ranks of its opponents.

One Democrat in the upper house, Senator Gore of Oklahoma, has consistently stood upon the platform of his party and regardless of the selfish demands of his constituents for "more" protection, has lonesomely but valiantly stood by his guns. Many of the Democrats in the senate voted with Aldrich, or absented themselves when it came to voting upon schedules in which their respective states were especially interested. Mr. Gore voted against Aldrich sixty-one times. Mc Enery of Louisiana (where the sugar cane grows), voted for everything that Aldrich wanted and even on the final vote supported the bill as a whole. Mr. Shively of Indiana, voted only once with Aldrich, but absented himself forty-nine times! Clark of Arkansas, did not vote with Aldrich, but was such an expert dodger that he was absent fifty-eight times! It now only remains for the Democrats to retire Mr. Gore to private life and heap continued honors upon their representatives who voted contrary to their party's alleged principles and if elections were close at hand this would most probably be the result.

A NEW CURE ALL.

Of course, it is a French professor who has made the startling discovery that men need no longer be cowards. All that is required to prevent it is a surgical operation. The surgeon of the future will remove from the coward the bone which presses on the brain or on the spot where the brain ought to be, and presto—a hero is born!

The discovery opens up the immense possibilities of surgery. We need not be a prophet nor the son of a prophet to foretell the time when the present race of cowards shall have perished from the earth and the surgeon in chief of the associated college of mental and moral carpentry will be the dictator of the universe! For why not? We are full of bones; we are also full of mental and moral obliquity. If the pressure of a certain bone upon a certain portion of the anatomy makes a man a coward, there is not much room for doubting that the pressure of other bones upon other sections of the body is responsible for other frailties of our human nature. The remedy and the result are therefore obvious. At first glance it would seem as if the Frenchman was a benefactor of the race, but as we ponder over the subject we are harassed by doubts which assail us to our infinite discomfiture. The dictator with the rip saw and scalping knife is the principal figure in the foreground of our mental picture gallery and notwithstanding the probability that he will think himself equal to the occasion, we must confess in the classic language of the day that he "doesn't look good to us." We are just about as near to having the world regulated by machinery now as we care to see it, and when it gets to be considered the proper thing to have a surgical operation performed for the cure of every little idiosyncrasy of conduct, we submit in all fairness to a candid public, will life on this sphere be worth living? When that unhappy day arrives, the end of every little dispute and unpleasantness will be a resort to the surgeon at the first street corner and just as often as not he will operate on the wrong bone. Instead, for instance, of removing the bone of contention, he will likely as not operate on the humerus and give it precisely the wrong twist. It will be painfully embarrassing we can well imagine to have an unfortunate victim of malpractice endowed all at once with some characteristic entirely out of harmony with his profession. The politician, for instance, who above all things needs backbone, will for a mere temporary lapse into veracity, or for some other trivial offense, be compelled for the good of the state to undergo a bone lifting operation which likely as not will change him in the twinkling of an eye into a respectable citizen and he be totally unfitted to perform the duties of his position. And then it is a matter of doubt whether there are bones enough in the human body to control all the ingenious mental and moral twists in our natures, anyhow, but the doctors when they once get started will never let a little thing like that embarrass them—every bone will have to do multiple duty. But there will no longer be any trouble between the allopath and the homeopath; there will be no school of medicine save that of the bone doctors!

THE BURBANK ELECTRIC ROAD.

There is nothing new in regard to this enterprise. The situation is practically as stated in this paper last week. The bonus of $30,000 has been provided, but it will be necessary to raise about $10,000 more to secure the right of way. Of this sum, $3000 is promised conditionally by one individual.

NOTICE OF SALE OF ELECTRIC LIGHT WORKS BONDS OF THE CITY OF GLENDAL, CALIFORNIA.

Sealed proposals will be received by the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, California, until 7:30 o'clock p. m., of Wednesday, Sept. 1st, 1909, to purchase Electric Light Works Bonds of said City of Glendale in the amount of Forty Thousand ($40,000.00) Dollars. Said bonds are forty year serials and are forty in number, each of the denomination of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, dated July 1st, 1909, and bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and on the first day of July of every year, principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the office of the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale.

One of said bonds is due and payable on the first day of July, 1910, and one of said bonds on the same day and date of each and every year thereafter.

Said bonds are issued under the authority of the act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled "An Act Authorizing the Incurring of Indebtedness by Cities, Towns and Municipal Corporations for Municipal Improvements and Regulating the Acquisition, Construction or Completion Thereof," which became a law February 25th, 1901, and the amendments thereto, and in accordance with the provisions of law and the ordinances of said City.

No proposals for said bonds will be entertained at less than their face value together with the accrued interest to the date of their delivery; and all bids or proposals submitted will be construed by the Board of Trustees of said City to mean par and accrued interest to the date of delivery of said bonds in addition to the premium offered, whether the bids or proposals set forth the same explicitly or not.

The said bonds will be ready for delivery on or about September 15th, 1909, and will be delivered at the City Treasurer's office in the City of Glendale, California, or at any designated place upon the payment by the purchaser of all expenses incurred by the delivery of the bonds and transfer of the money necessary to make delivery and payment equivalent to a transaction at the office of the City Treasurer in the said City of Glendale.

All bids or proposals providing for delivery at any place other than the City of Glendale, California, will be construed by the Board of Trustees to mean the price bid in addition to the expenses of delivery, whether the bid or proposal sets forth the same explicitly or not.

With each proposal or bid must be submitted a certified check drawn upon some bank in the State of California, payable to the order of the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale, for the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, as a guarantee that the bidder will purchase and pay for said bonds in accordance with his proposal in the event the bid is accepted.

The Board of Trustees of said City reserves the right to reject any and all bids or proposals.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, made at a regular meeting of said Board August 4th, 1909.

G. B. WOODBERRY,
City Clerk of the City of Glendale.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Aug. 8th, 1909.

(Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)

Paul's Instruction to the Thessalonians. 1 Thess. v:12-24.

Golden Text.—See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good. 1 Thess. v:15.

Verses 12-15.—What is the dominant note to-day between officials of the church and the pastor, is it official and business, or is it spiritual, that of tender love and warm esteem?

To ministers as a class "labor" as hard and suffer as their Master did, and thus compel the tender love and esteem of the church?

Does the average minister or not, actually "labor" as hard as the average mechanic, farmer, business or professional man, and practice as much self-denial as these?

What is generally the real character of those who will not support the church because they do not like the minister?

What is the only way by which to have "peace" among brethren in a church or in a community?

Verses 11.—If you know anything against a fellow Christian what is the right thing to do. (1) say nothing about it; (2) talk about it to others; (3) correct him in the presence of others; (4) see him alone and in love tell him what you have to say?

Jesus went about lovingly helping people in their bodies, their souls, and circumstances; if you and I are not doing that, have we a right to conclude that we are not followers of Jesus?

It is our duty, as a Christian, to take pains to "comfort" everybody with whom you come in contact, and if you are so doing, what is the effect upon your life?

Verses 15.—If my neighbor sets his dog on my sheep, pulls down my fences in the night, shoots my chickens when one gets into his yard, is constantly slandering me and my family, and will not pay me a long standing just debt, what would Jesus do if he were I? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 16.—It is easy, Paul, for you to say, "Rejoice evermore," but is it so practical for ordinary mortals, and if so, how?

Verses 17.—If a man is really in love, with God and his fellows, does he not necessarily pray all the time, either consciously or unconsciously?

Is it necessary, or helpful, to have set times for conscious prayer?

Verses 18.—Are we to be thankful all the time for pain and pleasure, for loss and gain, for enemies and friends, if we are "in Christ Jesus?"

Is it not an actual fact, based on the truest philosophy, that every sort of experience, which comes to a true man, is in the highest possible sense, for his good?

In the light of eternal existence, are there any such things as accident, calamity, misfortune, or even regrettable circumstances, in the life of a man of God?

Verses 19.—Can any man retain the peace of God, who is not absolutely obedient to the leadings of God's Holy Spirit?

Verses 20.—Prophecy here means preaching, is there any sign in these days that it is being despised?

Why should a love for the preaching of the gospel be cultivated?

Verses 21.—Why should we not as Christians encourage the most absolute free thought, the most critical research, and welcome the teaching of true science?

Can the real truth ever be a hurt to a true man, and is not such a man as glad to change his opinion, when he finds he is wrong, as to change a worn-out garment for a new one?

Verses 22.—If we desire the right only, and are obedient to God's spirit, need we ever fear even the "appearance of evil?"

Verses 23-24.—Does God mean his children to live "blameless" lives, and is the twenty-fourth verse not a promise that God will give the power to so do?
